

Release of Legal Liability
M/V Badcast, Badcast LLC and Andrew Renda

Read carefully before signing!

You are about to embark on a fishing charter on the Badcast! You should be aware that a trip like this requires you to exercise your common sense, to stay sober and alert, and, above all, to obey the instructions of your captain. You will be fishing in a dynamic environment, exposed to the possibility of injury, including from collision, falls, drowning, weather and other factors.

You agree to hold Badcast LLC and its employees, including Andrew Renda (collectively, "Owner") harmless from any liability, claims, loss, injury or damage (hereafter "claims"), including attorney's fees and including claims which may have been caused by the negligence of Owner, for incidents occurring on or about the Badcast, or getting to and from the Badcast, or on any shore excursion.

This Release is governed by the laws of the state of Maine and any action relating to it must be brought in Maine.

Date:

(Retain six years)
